

Tweet Sheet: Your Candidates–Your Health 2012

As the presidential campaigns heat up, it's time to find out where the candidates stand on medical and health research issues. Research!America has launched our award-winning voter education initiative, Your Candidates–Your Health 2012. This initiative asks candidates to complete a short questionnaire on health research issues and displays their responses on our website.

We need your help TODAY to reach out to the candidates and ask them to complete this short questionnaire. Health and medical research are critical issues for our nation and Americans deserve to know where candidates stand. Send a message to the campaigns right away. Together, we can put the spotlight on health and medical research in the 2012 elections.
