Edwin C. Whitehead Award for Medical Research Advocacy

The Edwin C. Whitehead Award for Medical Research Advocacy is Research!America's prestigious award presented to a public official. It is named after Edwin C. "Jack" Whitehead (1919-1992), who founded the Whitehead institute for Biomedical Research in 1982 and Research!America in 1989. This award recognizes exemplary leaders who have demonstrated a steadfast commitment to advancing research as a national priority.
