

New York on Global Health Public Opinion Poll

New Yorkers Are Concerned About Global Health

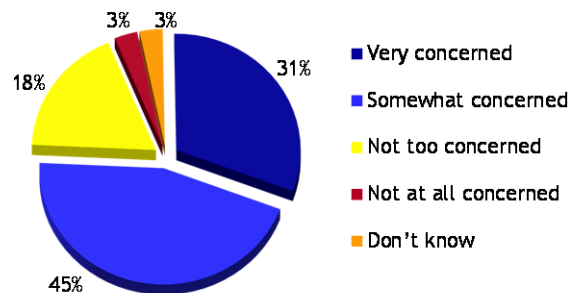

Global Health includes conditions and diseases that disproportionately affect individuals living in low- and middle-income countries. When you hear the term global health, do you think it is an issue about which New York residents should be concerned?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

New Yorkers Concerned About Infectious Diseases

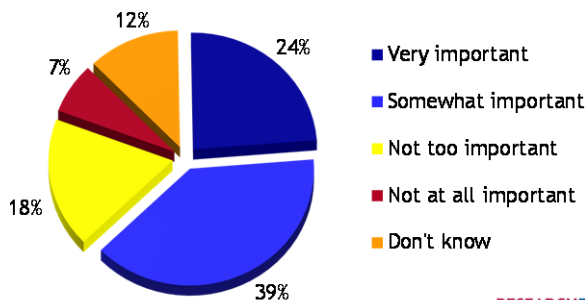

How concerned are you that infectious diseases elsewhere in the world will impact us here at home?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

New Yorkers Think Global Health Research is Important to Economy

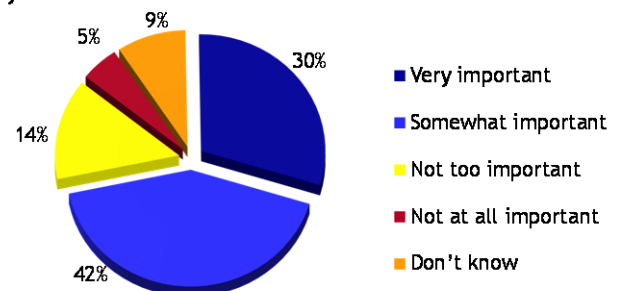

How important do you think spending money on global health research is to the economy of New York? Would you say it is...

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

Important for New York to Offer Companies Incentives to Invest

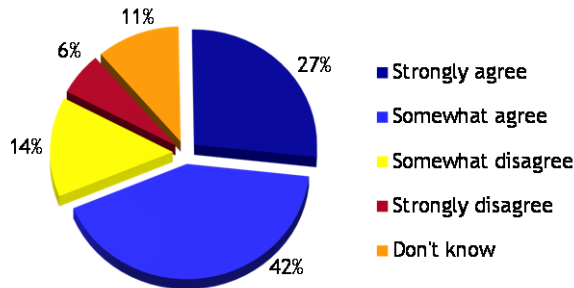

How important do you think it is for New York to offer tax or other incentives for companies to invest in research to improve health globally?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

Most Agree Americans Better Off if U.S. Invests in Research

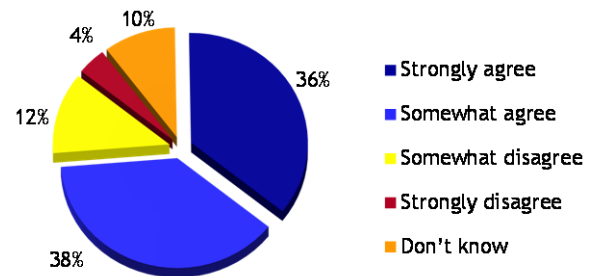

Do you agree or disagree that Americans will be better off if the U.S. government invests in global health research?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

New Yorkers Think U.S. Global Competitive Edge is in Danger

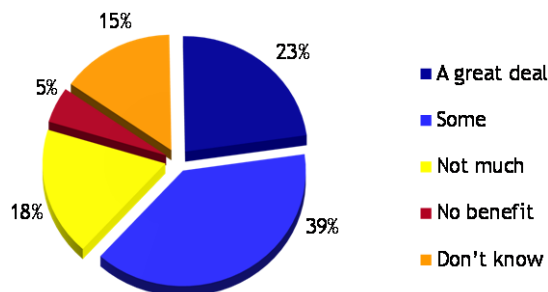

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement?
"The U.S. is in danger of losing its global competitive edge in science, technology and innovation."

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

New Yorkers Think Civilians Benefit from Military Health Research

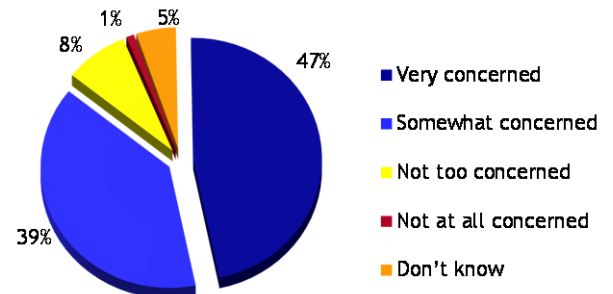

How much do you think American civilians benefit from health research conducted by the U.S. military?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

Most New Yorkers Concerned About Drug Resistance

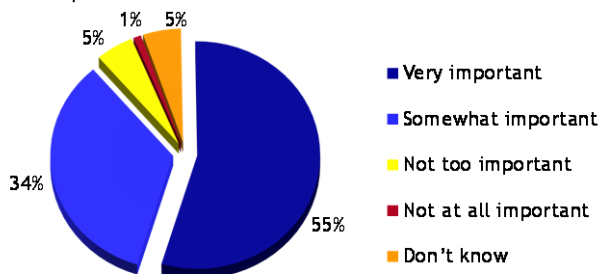

How concerned are you about drug resistance, which is when diseases and infections have become resistant to the medications used to treat them?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

Very Important for Elected Officials to Listen to Scientists

In thinking about threats to our health, how important is it that elected officials at all levels listen to advice from scientists and public health professionals?

Source: New York Global Health Survey, January 2012
JZ Analytics for Research!America

The New York Global Health Poll was conducted online in January 2012 by JZ Analytics for Research!America. The poll has a sample size of 800 adult residents of New York with a theoretical sampling error of between +/- 3.5% and 3.9%.

For more information about methodology for this and other Research!America polls, please contact:

Alexandra Cordts, Global Health Program Manager at 571.482.2707 or acordts@researchamerica.org.