

FUNDING SCIENCE

opens a world of possibilities

RAISE THE BUDGET CAPS

Scientific breakthroughs depend on federal support. From the internet to miraculous medical treatments, federal investments in scientific research have made America the unquestioned world leader in science, technology and innovation. These investments have revolutionized life on Earth, strengthened local economies and created millions of American jobs. Yet we'll surrender American leadership if Congress fails to raise the budget caps and increase funding for vital research.

researchamerica.org/RaiseTheCaps

#RaiseTheCaps

American Association for the Advancement of Science • American Educational Research Association • American Geophysical Union • American Physical Society • Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology • March for Science • National Association for Biomedical Research • OSA-The Optical Society • Research!America • Society for Neuroscience • Supporters of Agricultural Research

Contents

November 20, 2017 • Volume 23, Number 11

- 2 The Scrapbook Campaign canoodling, Macron's dog, & more
- 5 Casual Ethan Epstein, proud Reed alum
- 6 Editorials Honesty Is the Best Policy • Thoughts and Prayers

Articles

- 10 It Won't Be Easy This Time Either BY TONY MECIA
The lessons of the 1986 tax reform
- 12 A Bucket List for the House GOP BY TOD LINDBERG
Use your majority while you still can
- 15 A Wave No One Saw Coming BY FRED BARNES
The GOP wipeout in Virginia
- 16 The Great GOP Exodus BY JOHN McCORMACK
More than two dozen House members are retiring. How many more will follow?
- 19 Why Not? BY WILLIAM KRISTOL
Against fatalism
- 20 A Party Divided Against Itself . . . BY PHILIP TERZIAN
Is pretty much business as usual in America
- 21 A History of Failure BY JAY COST
Tax reform is much more difficult than tax cutting
- 23 The FCC's Radio Sweetheart BY DAVID A. SCHWARZ
A public station that runs ads?

Features

- 26 The Title IX Training Travesty BY KC JOHNSON & STUART TAYLOR JR.
Why campus rape tribunals hand down so many guilty verdicts
- 30 Spinning the bin Laden Documents BY STEPHEN F. HAYES
Ned Price isn't right

Books & Arts

- 34 The Noble Goethe BY ALGIS VALIUNAS
'Germany's Shakespeare' and the heroism of early democratic times
- 38 The Maestro in the Living Room BY JOHN CHECK
How Toscanini became the world's most famous conductor
- 40 Continuing Mission BY ELI LEHRER
Star Trek: Discovery brings the storied franchise back to TV
- 41 Ursus Discursion BY DAVID GUASPARI
Outsmarting the average bear
- 43 Taking Wing BY JOHN PODHORETZ
A coming-of-age tale that's clear-eyed yet charming
- 44 Parody BY JOHN PODHORETZ
A McState dinner

COVER: CULTURE CLUB / GETTY