

Join the Research!America Alliance

Together, with our more than 300 member organizations from across the medical, health, and scientific research and development ecosystem, Research!America works on a non-partisan basis to:

→ Advocate for Federal Funding

Achieve federal funding for medical and health research at a level warranted by scientific opportunity and supported by public opinion.

→ Advocate for Policy

Advocate for a policy and regulatory environment that supports fast-paced medical and public health progress and innovation across the public and private sectors.

→ Advocate for Science & Technology

Elevate science and technology among federal priorities.

Join us in our mission to achieve better health for all.

The Value of Membership

Alliance members value our day-in, day-out advocacy, laser-focused on ensuring Congress and the federal government prioritize faster medical and public health progress.

With our members, we are committed to advancing health and saving lives, and by engaging with members of Congress, the Administration, and the media, we work to ensure federal funding and policies are aligned with that profoundly important objective.

With member collaboration, we create policy and advocacy tools, resources, and engagement opportunities, including:

Public opinion surveys to inform effective advocacy and civic engagement efforts.

Weekly virtual discussions and signature in-person learning and networking opportunities including the Advocacy Awards and National Health Research Forum with leaders and experts from political offices, federal agencies, academia, independent research institutes, industry, patient advocacy groups, and the Research!America Board of Directors.

Member communications, such as Mary Woolley's Weekly Letter, to help stay up to date on the latest news, trends, and developments that impact the research and innovation ecosystem.
